Follow the instruction on 'posting a job' page. Note that starred input is required for the job posting while other inputs are optional.

And click "Submit" once you feel good about your input. You will see your post in "my post" page.

Business Demands System

A place for a company to build up its partnership by posting its business demands, like seeking clients, licensing deals or even fund raising.

- Business browsing: click "Business Demands" and you will see all business demands in the system.

Note that the left side is a filter section. To narrow down the search results, you first select which sector you are interested in
